

The background of the advertisement features a collection of various ceramic vessels. In the upper left, a large, light-colored bowl with a cracked, textured glaze is visible. To its right, a dark brown, wide-mouthed bowl sits on a matching pedestal. In the lower left, a dark grey, textured pitcher with a handle is partially shown, containing a small green plant. In the lower right, a tall, textured, golden-brown vase stands next to another similar but shorter vase. The overall aesthetic is rustic and artisanal.
